We hope you're as excited as we are to start the fall semester! With the start of classes right around the corner, we wanted to share some information about ordering textbooks.

1. Heidelberg partners with Barnes and Noble College (BNC) to provide an online textbook store for Heidelberg students. While textbooks are not available in the campus store, the staff in the store is happy to help with questions about class materials and textbook orders through BNC.
2. You will soon receive an email from Stacy Wheeler in the bookstore with the link to the site and detailed instructions. Watch your Heidelberg email for more info!
3. By using BNC, you can charge your books to a credit card or to your Heidelberg Student Account. You are responsible to pay the book charges on your Student Account according to your payment plan with Heidelberg.
4. You can choose to have your books shipped to you on campus or shipped to you at home. If shipping to campus, the address to use is 44 Greenfield St., Tiffin OH 44883
5. When you visit the site, if a course is not listed, the professor may not require a book, the book order may be delayed or there may be other materials and information that the professor will provide to you later. For more information, check back at a later date to see if the class is listed, and watch for information from your professor.
6. Any package shipped to campus through USPS, UPS, or FedEx will arrive at the bookstore in the Campus Center. An email will be sent to your Heidelberg email address, letting you know a package has arrived and is ready for you to pick up.
7. Heidelberg bookstore staff can be reached at 419-448-2012.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact us.
